CINCINNATI, OH — The NEW place to be in June for tri-state dollhouse miniatures collectors and enthusiasts is Heritage Presbyterian Church in Mason. The theme this year, “Heritage Holidays,” spans all seasons with all-time favorite holiday displays in miniature.

Presented by the Miniature Society of Cincinnati, the 44th Annual Dollhouse Miniatures Show & Sale runs TWO DAYS: Friday, June 2nd and Saturday, June 3rd, 2023. The event showcases artisans and dealers from across the country displaying and selling miniatures in all scales and sizes, including vignettes, reproductions of period furniture, dollhouse dolls, accessories, pottery, needlework, building supplies, estate items and more.

Enter all-day door prize drawings, buy unique artisan-made miniatures and dollhouse accessories, and view extensive displays of perfectly scaled miniatures. Family friendly, there’s even a special sales table just for kids ages 12 and under, where all items are priced less than $6.

Show & Sale hours are 4 to 7 PM Friday, June 2nd, and 10 AM to 4 PM Saturday, June 3rd. Admission is $5 for Adults, $3 for Children (ages 4–12); ages 3 and under are free. Pay one admission per person and come to shop both days by showing your wristband at the door.

Parking is free. Facility is wheelchair friendly. Wheelchairs and walkers are welcome; however, no strollers or backpacks, and no smoking please.
